

Religious Education Gardening Club

We planted seeds a few weeks ago and today we rehoused them in our newly dug over veggie beds – cucumber, kale and corn and more....

We have also found an abundance of tadpoles in the little pond and are enjoying checking up on them to see if they have grown legs yet.

Hopefully you can see all our little green shoots. We are looking forward to a feast of veggies at the end of summer. Harvest time!

