Italian Study Trip to Urbania

The MFL department is glad to invite students to take part in our Italian Study Trip to Urbania in April 2018. The study trip is open with priority to students studying Italian and with an interest in Italian art, culture and society in Years 10 -13.

We will visit Italy Sunday 8th - Friday 13th April 2018 (subject to flight availability). You will need to have your own passport and EHIC card. If you have a non-EC passport, we can arrange a visa waiver for this one visit.

For further information, please speak to your Italian teachers, Mrs Carbone and Miss Amadori.

Deadline to apply is the 1st of November 2017.

Lost Property

All lost property will be disposed of after half term.

If you are looking for items that you have lost, please come to student reception.
